Liturgist Guide

Thank you so much for serving as a liturgist. You make a difference for people and their worship experience. Here are some guidelines to help you as you prepare to serve.

Before Worship

- Please arrive 9:30 – 9:45a.m. Check in with Rev Michelle for any special instructions.
- Familiarize yourself with the Call to Worship, scripture, and the worship flow.
- Ensure the sanctuary is ready for the start of worship.
- You may process in with the pastor and acolytes or find your seat in the front before 10:00a.m.

During Worship

- Follow the bulletin/order of worship to assist in leading worship.
 - The Scripture will be emailed to you during the week prior
 - Lead the Call to Worship
 - Introduce the hymns
 - Read the morning's Scripture

Following Worship

- Assist, as you are able, with sanctuary clean-up
- On Communion Sundays, assist with the elements. (Bread and juice must be consumed or returned to nature. Bread may be taken home or given to someone who will eat it. Juice can be poured into the flower beds in front of the church.)
